I get it, it's rugged out there and that's why we love it.

KENTISH SKI CLUB WEEKEND

A massive thanks Steve S (Shephard Clan), Gav, Mark T, Matt M, and the Kentish Ski Club.

Another great weekend with around 40 members heading up to Lake Barrington to be hosted by Kentish, this is a great relationship we have enabling like minded people to have a play on the water.

Lake Cethana Mines and Jet Ski Fun Day

Mark T, Mr Wilson, Steve S and Matt M started the day early and took the jet skis down to the lake, while Garth headed up the convoy at the Home Makers BP and led them up to Moina. With 9 vehicles ranging from Zacs mighty Kia, standard Colorada, Pajero through to the usual Cruisers and Patrols, we aired down and wandered through some challenging (for the standard Pajero, Colorado and Kia) tracks stopping to check out some of the old mines in the area. The Shephard's finding 2 "stashed" Dev 4x4 stickers, scoring themselves some lovely pickled onions :)

The front cover tells it all, visitor Zac loving life in the Kia, with an anchor buy Garth, guidance from Kurt, Zac using his winch for a recovery for the first time, this is what 4x4 clubs are all about. Soon after this we stopped at a very cool mine, the shaft lined with old car bonnets, before we split and the soft 4x4's and Gav, led by Mr Wilson, headed to the lake whilst the others led by Mark T tackled a nice little 4x4x track back to the lakes edge, Camp was set, a BBQ and some jet ski rides, with Michelle taking an unexpected midday shower, Garth had a lil nanny nap in the sun, with the day folk heading off and a few camping the night.

Garth was the knight in shining armour on the way home with Zac's vehicle shredding a fan and having some issues, Garth lending a towing hand, Zac improvising and limping his car home.

Thanks Mark T, Matt M, and Mr Wilson for the jet skis, Garth for the step in Trip leader.
