Trip leaders Kurt and Kimbra

Lake Cumberland Trip 19-21 May 2023

Kurt & Kimbra Patrol , Mark Patrol , Matty & Lexie Land Cruiser, Trout & Stewie Patrol.

Headed down to trial Harbour Friday night, then proceeded to the little Henty campsite , had a couple of issues, trying to find the camp but eventually got there and set up camp and waited for everyone to turn up, trout was the last one there about 11 pm.

Left camp Saturday morning and headed to the Climies turn off to meet Stephen Jimmy and Ryan, then headed up to the lake Cumberland turn off and aired down. Five minutes into the track Steven put a tyre off the bead ,after the repair we moved to the top of the hill and had a look at the old grave site. Kept moving along the track clearing some small trees, then at a rocky obstacle, Kurt had some trouble. Hung up on some rocks with a tyre off the bead. After a tyre repair, winched up the rock steps, rest of vehicles got through okay.

Then moved on up to the switch back, which was the next major obstacle. Mark decided that we would rearrange the track moving a large rock. All vehicles, except Mark winched up the switch back.

Then just passed the next corner. Kurt was on a very bad angle and the boys quickly ran winch rope out and put vehicle back down.

All vehicles then proceeded up the track to the car park at Lake Cumberland and noticed that the track kept going, so we ventured further up the hill to a old Mine site explored the area and then turned up a muddy track, leading to the very top of the mountain, with spectacular views and more mine sites to explore.

It was getting late, so we quickly got back down the track to the switchback obstacle, which was another challenge going back down, rock packing, winching and shovelling, trying to make it safer. We all made it down with no damage, except Steven, denting up his rear Jerrycan holder. We were heading down the track just on dark, everyone getting a few scrapes and bangs under their vehicles. At the end of the track Matty Decided to head home because it was too wet for the kids to camp and trout had to run Stewie to hospital for a injury that he acquired when chopping wood. So Mark and Kurt headed back to camp and got a fire going and settled in for the night with a few drinks and barbecue. The rain eased off and was a good night.

Woke up the next morning after a windy night, had a sleep in and cooked breakfast. When we had packed up, we then Oonah Hill track with some great views of Zeehan Area. Drove down into Zeehan had some lunch aired up and headed home. On the way home, Kurt and Kimbra explored the old Rennison Bell Battery and old hotel site .
