Great Wolf Day

CIRCUS QUIRKUS is a contemporary take on your favourite, traditional circuses of ages past.

Over the many years they have brought an eclectic and entertaining mix of Circus acts from all over the world. Bee Me enjoyed Jugglers, Acrobats and an Illusionist as they delivered funny, hugely engaging and sometimes death-defying acts of unbelievable skill.

The Bee Me Children (Autism Specific) were given the opportunity to head along to two different shows under the kind donations and support of people sponsoring this wonderful cause.

Thanks to Kurt & Kimbra

Balfour Enduro Track 16-18th September 2022

Arrived at the Temma Shack on Friday night, Simon followed us in.

Got shack ready and waited for the other to arrive.

Everyone turned up later and set up their tent and gazebo's etc.

Kurt lit the fire pit and it was great until the rain started.

Bit of a storm came through during the night and a few people woke up wet, especially Jimmy and Dallas.

Saturday morning, weather was raining but headed off anyway, to the Nelson end of the Enduro Track. We met Kimbra's son Logan here for the day and started the track.

The first person bogged was Stephen, followed closely by Ryan, who was trying to retrieve him.

The boys soon learnt that the button grass plain country was very soft in patches.

Everyone had fun and all the vehicles got bogged at least once, including Mark with the sticky treps on.

Simon had a tyre come off the bead 4-5 times during the day and finally worked out that his trye pressure was too low.

The day improved and we only had a few showers.

Most people had a least one leach on them, including Kurts dog Fuzzy.

Everyone had trouble on the same section with all vehicles requiring a winch to get through.

The track was fun with a few hills and tight sections and even did a bit of track clearing, that involved using block and chain.

Finish the track at approximately 4.30pm and headed back to the shack so the young ones could cook up their roasts. Dallas, Tegan and Oliver headed home just before tea.

Ended the night with everyone inside the shack and the first person asleep was Stephen, which pleased Kurt, cause he out partied him for the first time.

Sunday morning, we all packed up and head home. Stephen had an alternator problem, so the young ones headed home.

Kurt, Mark and Simon headed in the Sundown Point and looked at the Aboriginal Rock Carvings. Could cross the Sundown Creek, so went back out to the Temma Road and then down Bullock Hill track onto Arthur River Beach and had a go at the Bowl. Then onto The Edge of the World before a coffee at the Arthur River Shop, where we aired up and Simon left us. Kurt and Mark went to the Harcus River Road to Montagu and checked out Kurt Oyster shed and washed the vehicles.

Thank you for everyone for coming and we would like to have another trip again next year, if people are keen.
